PEAK LAKE GARDA 42: RUNNERS FROM RIGHT ACROSS THE WORLD SET TO RETURN FROM 9–11 APRIL 2027

The PEAK LAKE GARDA 42 will return from 9 to 11 April 2027, once again transforming the spectacular shores of northern Lake Garda into an international stage for running. Three days in which sport, nature and excitement come together to create a unique experience, leading up to Sunday's headline races and drawing runners and enthusiasts from every corner of the globe.

It's official: the PEAK LAKE GARDA 42 will return from 9 to 11 April 2027. The sixth edition of the much-anticipated running festival is now firmly set in the international sporting calendar and will once again deliver an unforgettable weekend of spectacular scenery, competition and celebration. The spectacular setting of Lake Garda and its surrounding mountains will once again provide the backdrop as thousands of participants gather to enjoy a vibrant international atmosphere.

The event's popularity was evident long before this year's race weekend, with all 5,000 places sold out six months in advance. Interest in the 2027 edition is already high, not only among those who took part, but also among runners who missed out this year and are determined to be on the start line next April.

Because the PEAK LAKE GARDA 42 is so much more than just a marathon. It's an event built around energy, passion and a sense of community, appealing to runners of all levels and especially to female participants, as the numbers continue to show.

Participants can choose to take on the half marathon, starting in Arco, or go for the headline event — the marathon — which starts in Limone sul Garda before both races finish together in Malcesine. But that's not all: the adrenaline-pumping Trail Run is scheduled for Friday, April 9, while Saturday, April 10, will feature the PEAK Morning Run in Limone sul Garda and the Kids Run in the afternoon in Arco, a joyful celebration where young runners steal the spotlight with smiles, excitement, and their very first finish lines.

Over the years, the event has grown into a truly international event: at the latest edition, only 14% of participants came from Italy, underlining its increasingly global appeal, with 72 countries represented, including Venezuela, the Philippines, Thailand and Mexico.

With this spirit of openness, energy and passion, the event now looks to 2027 with a proven format that will once again welcome 5,000 runners, evenly split between the marathon and half marathon, for three days dedicated to running – combining competition, enjoyment and adventure.

The PEAK LAKE GARDA 42 is not just a race, but a unique experience, a journey through sport and natural beauty that inspires new unforgettable stories year after year. And on Sunday 11 April 2027, runners will once again take to the start line, with registration for the next edition set to open this summer.
